

RICK SCOTT
GOVERNOR

EDUCATION AND SHARING DAY IN FLORIDA

WHEREAS, excellence in education is vital to the success of our nation and our state; and in the great State of Florida we seek the betterment of our citizens, and look to instill each child with a great education; and

WHEREAS, education develops our students' intellect through lessons in literacy, math, and science and prepares them for future jobs and opportunities; and

WHEREAS, the Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem Schneerson, dedicated his life to the betterment of mankind, emphasized the importance of education and good character, and instilled the hope for a brighter future into the lives of countless people in America and across the globe; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of the Rebbe's contributions to society and world education, he has been awarded the Congressional Gold Medal, and the United States Congress has established his birth date as a national day to raise awareness and strengthen the education of our children;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Rick Scott, Governor of Florida do hereby extend greetings and best wishes to all observing March 27, 2018, as Education and Sharing Day in Florida and call upon government officials, educators, volunteers, and citizens to reach out to young people and work to create a better, brighter, and more hopeful future for all.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Florida to be affixed at Tallahassee, the Capital, this 22nd day of March, in the year two thousand eighteen.
