

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

Office of the Governor

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, excellence in education is vital to the success of our nation and our state; and

WHEREAS, in the state of Mississippi we seek the betterment of our citizens and look to instill each child and adolescent with a good education; and

WHEREAS, by preparing our students for the responsibilities and opportunities of the future, education develops the intellect through lessons on literacy, math, and science; and

WHEREAS, one shining example for all people of what education should be was provided by the Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem Schneerson, a global spiritual leader who dedicated his life to the betterment of mankind. He was a tireless advocate for youth around the world, emphasizing the importance of education and good character and instilling hope for a brighter future into countless people in America and across the globe; and

WHEREAS, Education and Sharing Day provides an excellent opportunity for Mississippi to demonstrate its dedication to the well-being and education of all children across the state:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Phil Bryant, Governor of the State of Mississippi, hereby proclaim Tuesday, March 27, 2018, as in the State of Mississippi.

EDUCATION AND SHARING DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, on the 27th day of March in the year of our Lord, two thousand and eighteen, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the two hundred and forty-second.
